

it was he who first informed use of tin* near appn»aeh of tin war which we are now engaged in. I i'or#t, all that, has beer said against him for the last two yearn, and as soon as peace is concluded, and 1 am at leisure, I will think of him, "

After relating to me this conversation Duroe. said, •» Von must, of course, feel assured that I Maid all I think of you. and 1 will take an opportunity of reminding him of y«»u. But we must be patient. Adieu, my dear friend; we must ,st*t oil speedily, and Heaven knows whim we .shall b«» back a#iin! " I wished him a successful campaign and a Npffdy return, Alas! 1 was doomed to see my excellent friend only onct' again.

Next to the death of Duroc Use IOH.H most sincerely r«n:rHt«'<| during the campaign of IHL'i wan that of Princi» Piiniatow.ski. Joseph Poniatowski, a nephew of Stanishw Au*4u*tiiN, Kin?: of 'Poland, was horn at Warsaw on tin 7ili of May, 1T«»I. At an early age he was remarkable for his patriotic spirit; hut lib uncle's influencte gave him an apparent, irresolutioiK \whirh rendered him susJM»rt«*ci by win*¹ of tin* j»arti«*s in i'«i|anfi. After his unele had it*seetli»il in tin' C'f*iifVili-niiitii nf* Tar^o-witz Poniatownki left the w»rvin* :ii*t*t»i{ijt4.iiii*il by most nf his prindpal officers. But when, in 171*4. th«* l«n!i*M i*»Mti»avMM»il to repulse the ItuRKiutiH* In* a^ain n'»j»air««| to th» Pnlinli «*aiii|» and entered the army tin a vulunti*i*r. HIM nobli» <M»niiti<i obtained for him tin t*stt»i*iii of li!!* «nintiyu*ii, K*« iVL«i gave him the roinniaiKi of a ili|i.i.<»fi, witli wht«'h h rn»li'n'ii useful servieeg tturin;v; the two j*«*tffs t»f \ V;tinris%. Iiiiiiiiiiii. ately aftc*r the unrraiKlff cif that capital PiHii;it<i4v *l*i n»»nt ti» Vienna. H« ri*ftiwiil flitMiffiTK nl° Hifiit^iiii* antl Pawl !M i*i*ar arms in tht* »rvier of* i%!tsM»L

iNmiatowKki ri'tiri*il to lib wt;tfi» »i*ar Uar«'Mtt'» ii'lu-K' In* li|i*d like a private gi*ntli»iii;iii until flu* rrt*;ifimi nl t| i«» iir.iiijil Ihieliy of Warnaw r« vivi'il tlw }ii|wi uf thi* Pti!$*ii j*atri!,•, Hit then twain War Minintfr Ihi' Arrh«iuh< Ft tiliiii.ifil il having cnuu% in iKfiil, with Ati^trimi frinijiH fi* t,«kr |»r,n* *i^i«tii of the Duchy of Warsaw, PomatowMki, nmuii.iutit'/l

flu* Polish tr«H>pi«f whirh m*i*n* v*i*y iniVri^r in rn t*» tin* AttHtriaii forc*i% obliged tin* iatti»r_f ruliirr It? i«t'